

Privacy Policy of Full Health Clarity, Inc.

Effective Date: January 1, 2024

Introduction

At Full Health Clarity, Inc., we are committed to safeguarding the privacy and security of the information we collect and manage. This Privacy Policy outlines our practices regarding the collection, use, and protection of personal and healthcare information in compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Scope

This policy applies to all personal and health-related information collected through our website and digital data solutions from healthcare practices and patients.

Data Collection and Use

Types of Data Collected: We collect various data types, including, but not limited to, patient health records, contact information, payment details, and usage data from our digital platforms.

Purpose of Collection: Data is collected to provide and improve healthcare services, process payments, communicate with users, and comply with legal obligations.

Legal Basis for Processing (GDPR): We process personal data based on consent, contractual necessity, and our legitimate interests in providing healthcare IT services.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

Third-Party Sharing: Data may be shared with healthcare providers, medical device manufacturers, clinical research endeavors, insurance companies, and technology service providers under strict confidentiality agreements.

Disclosure Practices: Information may be disclosed when required by law or in the context of corporate transactions.

Cross-Border Transfers: If data is transferred internationally, we ensure adequate protections as required by GDPR.

User Rights and Choices

Access and Control: Users have the right to access, amend, delete, or transfer their data. Requests can be made via email to info@fullhealthclarity.com.

Opt-Out Options: Users can opt out of certain data uses, such as marketing communications.

Data Security Measures

Security Protocols: We employ robust security measures, including encryption and access controls, to protect data integrity and prevent unauthorized access.

Compliance with HIPAA: Specific safeguards are in place to ensure the confidentiality and security of protected health information (PHI).

Data Retention and Deletion

Retention Period: Data is retained as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy, or as required by law.

Deletion Procedures: Upon expiry of the retention period or at a user's request, data is securely deleted or anonymized.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

Policy Updates: This policy may be updated periodically. We will notify users of significant changes through our platforms or via email.

Contact Information

For any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy or our data practices, please contact us at:

info@fullhealthclarity.com

Governing Law

This Privacy Policy is governed by the laws of Delaware. and in compliance with HIPAA and GDPR regulations.